House wine selection

Fine wine maker, Les Vignobles Foncalieu stretch their reach across 4,000 hectares of the largest and oldest wine-making region in the world, offering a wide palette of grape varieties. By mastering terroir and selecting plots they believe are extraordinary, Foncalieu produce fine Languedoc wines.

L'Autantique - For thousands of years the Autan wind blowing in from the sea has been sweeping through Languedoc wine region in hot gusts, shaping the vines in the style of their terroir. In other words, authentic.

white wines

Viognier ABV 13%
Yellow with greenish hints, aromas of apricot, peach, and exotic fruits. The palate is soft, laced with melon, yellow apple, apricot, and orange characters.

Chardonnay ABV 13%
This un-oaked Chardonnay has a wonderfully aromatic nose of peaches and apricots, intense flavours of white fresh fruit and a delicious, clean, fresh finish.

Sauvignon Blanc ABV 12.5%
Dry, lively, fresh and thirst quenching; an aromatic wine with classic Sauvignon gooseberry characters.

red wines

Syrah ABV 13%
Deep red with purple tints, blackcurrant, cherry, and lilac aromas. The palate is silky and delicate with a hint of liquorice on a persistent finish.

Merlot ABV 13.5%
Garnet red colour. The wine rolls out intense, complex flavours of ripe red fruit and spices. Medium-bodied and discreet tannins.

Cabernet Sauvignon ABV 13.5%
Full & fruity with intense aromas of cassis, pleasingly supple on the palate with a slight hint of vanilla. Fine, elegant tannins.

rosé wine

Les Roulants Cabernet Rosé ABV 13%
This delightful, dry, Cabernet rosé is packed with red berry fruit. Smooth and easy drinking.
